EVALUATION

1. Specialist PE Teaching

Specialist PE teaching, observed by class teachers for CPD	£4300
Staff feedback: <ul style="list-style-type: none">I observed the teaching of cricket and tag rugby. I benefited very much from seeing the ways the skills required to play the game were taught progressively. The activities that were planned to build these skills were simple yet effective and ones that I would not have thought of myself. I am now teaching a block on Tag Rugby and am finding it much easier to plan and deliver a succession of progressive sessions.I was lucky enough to have two half terms with Sarah last year. She did tag rugby one half term and cricket the other. I feel I benefitted in many ways including seeing how she quickly built up their skills and the confirming the rules of the games. I now feel more confident teaching these areas this year.The children learned to develop their skills in cricket and rounders. As a result of watching a specialist teach PE, I was able to widen my knowledge of how to teach these skills with children.I think the best aspect of the CPD for me was to better understand the skills of tag rugby, and therefore feeling more confident in teaching it myself and also picking up different ideas for warm up skills for specific games.For tag rugby and hockey, I gained knowledge of how skills are taught/introduced and their progression lesson by lesson.
Impact: Increased confidence, knowledge and skills of staff in teaching PE and sport.
